1. What is an InPost Account and what is it used for?

- 1.1. An InPost Account is a profile created by you, through which we identify you in our digital services and thanks to which you can use them to the full extent, also using service personalization on various devices, as well as control and manage your personal data.
- 1.2. The InPost Account is necessary for processing data (including its storage in connection with running the InPost Account for you) when you use InPost services such as using the application and services available in it, such as: sending and returning parcels, placing orders in online stores, and others that we offer at any given time and indicate that you can use them while using the InPost Account.
- 1.3. The InPost Account has built-in security, which protects your information and personal data, but at the same time enables easy access to various InPost services.

2. Age Requirements

- 2.1. The minimum age required to manage your own InPost Account is 13 years. If you are not old enough to manage your InPost Account independently, you must have parental or legal guardian consent to use these services. In such a case, please ask your parent or legal guardian to read this Agreement with you.
- 2.2. Some of the services we offer may require a higher minimum age for lawful usage. The specific age is defined in the terms applicable to each service (you can find them in the numbered appendices to this Agreement). If you are not old enough to use InPost services independently, you must have parental or legal guardian consent to use these services. In such a case, please ask your parent or legal guardian to read this Agreement with you.
- 2.3. If your parent or legal guardian allows you to use our services, this Agreement applies to them, and they are responsible for your activity in our services.

3. How to Create an InPost Account?

- 3.1. You can create an InPost Account by downloading our app onto your device. Remember that having an active InPost Account is necessary to fully utilize some of our services. If a specific InPost digital service requires an InPost Account, we will inform you when you attempt to access that service. Therefore, if you do not create your InPost Account immediately, each time you launch one of our services, we will prompt you to set up an account.
- 3.2. Note that to start the registration process for an InPost Account, and for each subsequent login to your InPost Account, you must have the Webview feature enabled. If this feature is disabled on your device, you will receive a notification that registration cannot proceed when you click the button to start registration. In such a case, you can only retry registration after enabling the Webview feature on your device.
- 3.3. To create your InPost Account, we need:
 - a. your phone number,
 - b. your email address,
 - c. your acceptance of the InPost digital services terms and acknowledgment of the Privacy Policy (therefore, we ask you to read them before accepting),
 - d. registration confirmation to ensure no one is impersonating you – hence, we will send a verification link to the email address you provided.
- 3.4. When creating an InPost Account, you must provide us with accurate information, including your phone number and email address. Otherwise, you will not be able to create an InPost Account, or we may not be able to provide you with all or part of the services. Therefore, if you provide incorrect or false information, we are not responsible for the consequences. This is very important to us, which is why we reserve the right to verify that the information you provide is accurate.

- 3.5. After creating your InPost Account, we will also ask you to provide your full name and address or confirm that the previously given information is correct if we identify that it already exists in our system. You can skip this step; however, not providing this information will prevent you from using certain services or functionalities of the InPost app, such as making purchases via InPost Pay.
- 3.6. If you register an InPost Account using your Google account or Apple ID, we obtain your name (username) from the service you selected and connect to your account in that service through the available authorization tools. Then, as part of the InPost Account registration process, you can enter a delivery address and will be prompted to complete further steps in accordance with section 3.3.
- 3.7. We do not charge any fees for creating or maintaining an InPost Account.
- 3.8. You may create only one InPost Account using the same data. We cannot accept the creation of multiple InPost Accounts with the same data, and if this occurs, we have the right to delete such additional accounts. Of course, we will inform you of such a situation.

4. How Can You Use the InPost Account?

- 4.1. You can use your InPost Account on multiple devices; however, in such cases, we will request additional authorization for each device by sending you an SMS with an authorization code.
- 4.2. The phone number and email address you provide are linked to a unique InPost Account, and we cannot assign a different phone number to the same InPost Account. However, you can change the email address associated with your InPost Account. Regardless, you can always create a new InPost Account using a different phone number or email address.
- 4.3. From the moment you register your InPost Account:
 - a. You can use our services as a user; however, remember that each service has additional terms, the content of which is included in the appropriate appendix to the InPost Digital Services Agreement. Starting to use a particular service signifies your acceptance of such additional terms and acknowledgment of the privacy policy of that service (if such a document is provided to you), so please read them carefully before using the service for the first time;

- b. The function of processing all your payments through InPost Pay will be automatically enabled in the InPost Mobile app unless a service or functionality specifies a different payment method;
- c. You can take advantage of useful features such as autofill data, personalized recommendations, and easy access to key information in any InPost service covered by the agreement.

5. How We Ensure the Security of Your InPost Account

- 5.1. You, as the user, are fully responsible for your InPost Account. This includes taking reasonable measures to secure your InPost Account from unauthorized access, such as theft of login credentials by another person. We recommend regularly updating the security settings on the device you use. Remember also that in the case of losing access to the Google or Apple ID account which you used to register your InPost Account, you will also lose access to your InPost Account unless you provide us with your email address directly during registration, enabling future login to our services without linking to the above-mentioned accounts.
- 5.2. To enhance the security of your data within your InPost Account, we will periodically ask you to log in again using our app. If in the login data form you notice an unfamiliar email address or one you no longer have access to displayed in the login form, you can contact our Customer Services by clicking the “Get Help” button and choosing your preferred contact method to start the manual account recovery process. Our staff will guide you through the process. We do not save any data obtained during the account recovery procedure. We recommend this same action if you suspect someone is using your InPost Account without your consent.

- 5.3. You may also choose to create a new InPost Account. In this case, we will delete the previously registered InPost Account associated with that phone number and email address, along with the account history and purchases made within it and redirect you to the registration screen to create a new InPost Account.
- 5.4. Beyond these recovery procedures, remember not to share your passwords or verification codes with anyone. If you encounter login issues, we encourage you to contact our helpline, which will assist you in the next steps of logging into your InPost Account without accessing your personal data.
- 5.5. Within your InPost Account, you can edit your personal information and update privacy and security settings. Your InPost Account is also a central, secure location where you can store all your personal data for using services, including saving and deleting payment cards used for transactions in InPost Pay. We do not store card data; instead, we use a special encrypted token, and card data is stored only in the secure environments of payment service providers.
- 5.6. Changing your devices (without simultaneously changing the phone number associated with your InPost Account) or logging out of the app does not result in the deletion of your InPost Account.
- 5.7. You can delete your InPost Account by withdrawing from the electronic service agreement with us (in accordance with the provisions of the InPost Digital Services Agreement), for example, by clicking the “Delete Account” button in our app and submitting a written or electronic statement of withdrawal from the agreement with us.

6. What Services Do We Provide?

- 6.1. The list of services provided by InPost is included in Appendix A to this Agreement.

- 6.2. The correct functioning of our services may depend on whether you have the capability to receive text messages (SMS) and access the Internet on your device, as on the access settings you have established on your device.
- 6.3. Some of our services may require the presence of other programs on your device, such as an internet browser or PDF readers, which are independent of us.
- 6.4. The detailed terms of use for particular InPost services are an integral part of this Agreement and do not require your separate acceptance; commencing use of a given service implies your acceptance of its terms.

7. How Can You Use InPost Services?

- 7.1. If you wish to use our services, you must have a device that meets certain technical requirements (which we have described later in the Agreement), have the application installed (which you can download from platforms like Google Play or App Store), have an InPost Account set up, and have Internet access (without Internet, you may not have access to all services and functionalities).
- 7.2. We respect legal regulations and care for our users. This is why you may not add any content or data to your InPost Account and services that:
 - a. are unlawful;
 - b. constitute malware (viruses, trojans, programs that modify the application's operation);
 - c. are an attempt to gain access to services or use them in a dishonest or deceptive manner, such as phishing, creating fake accounts or content, including reviews, giving others the misleading impression that AI-generated content was created by a human, providing services that appear to be from the user (or someone else) but are from us, etc.;

- d. intercept data available within the services.
- 7.3. You may not use your InPost Account and Services in a manner contrary to public decency, good practices, or in a way that disrupts the proper functioning of these services. We also protect our interests, so you cannot use your InPost Account and services in a manner that infringes upon them. In particular, we require you to respect the rights of others (including privacy and intellectual property laws) and not to exploit or harm others or yourself (or threaten or encourage such behavior) – for example, by misleading others, illegally impersonating them, deceiving them, defaming, harassing or stalking.
- 7.4. If you use your InPost Account or any of the services in violation of the above prohibitions, we may block your access to them.
- 7.5. Our additional terms and conditions concerning specific services, including rules regarding unauthorized uses of generative AI, contain further information on appropriate conduct that all users of these services must adhere to. If you encounter instances of non-compliance with these rules, many of our services included options to report abuse, which you can utilize. Upon receiving a report, we investigate the matter.

8.10. More information about how we process your personal data can be found in our Privacy Policy.

8.11. Providing personal data is voluntary but necessary for creating and managing an InPost Account. Remember, objecting to data processing and requesting data deletion also signifies your resignation from the InPost Account.

8.12. To deliver our services, we sometimes send users service notifications and other information. In our Privacy Policy, available at <https://inpost.pl/polityka-prywatnosci>, we have described how we communicate with users.

9. What Are We Responsible For, and What Are We Not?

9.1. The applicable consumer protection laws ensure InPost's responsibility for the compliance of the services we provide with the agreement. Under this obligation, we are responsible for any lack of compliance detected:

- a. within 2 years from a single delivery of content or services (such as purchasing a movie, service voucher, etc.);
- b. at any time during the “continuous” provision of content or services to you (such as the app, InPost Account, other services, and their functionalities).

9.2. As a user, you have the right to expect high-quality services and the provision of means to resolve potential issues. As a consumer, you are entitled to all rights granted under applicable laws and any additional rights provided in this Agreement or the additional terms related to specific services.

9.3. We strive to provide you and other users with the best possible experience when using our services. However, there are situations and events beyond our control. Below are situations and events for which we are not responsible:

- a. Force majeure,
- b. Providing false personal information, especially when creating your InPost Account,
- c. Sharing access to the app and your InPost Account with others,
- d. Your device does not meet the technical requirements described in section 4,
- e. The manner and quality of service provision by telecommunications operators with whom you have agreements (including internal service). We are also not responsible for fees for services provided by these operators.

9.7. We will inform you of the resolution of your complaint via the e-mail address you provided when submitting it.

10. Terms of this Agreement

10.1. We understand that the rules set forth in this Agreement significantly change how you use our service. For this reason, we will apply them as specified in the subsequent provision of section 11.

- 10.2. Starting September 8, 2025, registering an InPost Account requires providing the full range of data specified in section 3.3, that is, your phone number and email address. After verifying the InPost Account, new users will also be asked to provide their name and home address. Users have the right to skip this step of providing additional data, but they will not be able to use the InPost Pay feature until these details are provided.
- 10.3. Users who have used the InPost Mobile app and had an active InPost Pay account before September 8, 2025, will not need to take any additional actions other than accepting this Agreement (within the app). Their existing account in the InPost Mobile app will automatically become a full InPost Account, and their existing account in InPost Pay will automatically become part of that InPost Account. However, if you use one of the older versions of the InPost Mobile app, you may deactivate InPost Pay during the transition period by contacting our Customer Service.
- 10.4. Users who used the InPost Mobile app before September 8, 2025, but did not have an active InPost Pay account, will be asked to provide their e-mail address for full activation of the InPost Account after accepting this Agreement (within the app). Such users have the right to skip this step, but they will not be able to use the InPost Pay feature until these details are provided.
- 10.5. Skipping the provision of an e-mail address will be possible during that transition period, which will last from September 8, 2024, to February 28, 2026, inclusive. During that transition period, users can use the InPost Mobile app according to the existing rules, except for the InPost Pay feature, which requires full data provision. Each time a user attempts to use InPost Pay without completing the data, they will be prompted to do so.
- 10.6. On March 1, 2026, all users who have not provided an e-mail address will be automatically logged out of the InPost Mobile app. To reuse InPost Mobile app, users will need to complete full registration on the InPost Account through Webview, providing all the required data according to section 3.3 of this Agreement.

11. How Do We Change the Agreement?

- 11.1. We provide the current version of the Agreement electronically within each of the services listed in Appendix A to the Agreement.
- 11.2. We may amend the Agreement for important reasons, which include:
- a. new or amended legal regulations that affect the content of the Agreement,
 - b. obligations imposed on us by public authorities or courts that relate to the content of the Agreement,
 - c. changes in the range of functionalities available within the InPost Account, such as extending the scope of service we provide using the InPost Account or their removal,
 - d. changes in the operation of our applications that may affect your rights and obligations within the InPost Account and need to be described in the Agreement,
 - e. the need to improve support for you and other users - this also includes improving the complaint submission process,
 - f. changes in the operation of the application itself that may affect your rights and obligations and must be described in the Agreement,
 - g. the necessity to enhance the protection of your privacy and the privacy of other users, as well as the security of personal data
 - h. editorial changes, including the correction of typos, an incorrect usage of words or numbers,
 - i. changes in technical, economic conditions, or market trends related to our service,

- j. changes in our name or registration and contact details,
 - k. updating links to websites.
- 11.3. If we intend to change the Agreement, we will notify you via the mobile applications you may use and our website: <https://inpost.pl/regulaminy>; we may also send you a separate e-mail notification.
- 11.4. We will announce changes to the Agreement no later than 14 days before they take effect, giving you time to familiarise yourself with the changes. There are 4 exceptions to this rule when we may implement changes sooner:
- a. If new or amended legal regulations arise so quickly that we cannot maintain the minimum 14-day period before the amended Agreement comes into effect,
 - b. If public authorities or courts impose obligations on us that must be fulfilled so quickly that we cannot adhere to the 14 days,
 - c. If we grant you new rights or expand existing ones without imposing any obligations or burdens,
 - d. If we introduce entirely new services that do not worsen or replace existing services.
- 11.5. From time to time, we may ask for your explicit acceptance of the amended Agreement directly within one of the InPost applications. In such a case, if you do not accept the Agreement in any of the applications you use, we will not have a basis to continue providing you access to any of them, and we cannot ensure this access. In such a case, we ask that you refrain from using our digital services.
- 11.6. If you use more than one InPost app (service) and we change the main content of the Agreement and request your acceptance, the acceptance of the amended Agreement in one of the services you use will automatically be transmitted to the remaining services, meaning you do not need to accept the same Agreement more than once.

- 11.7. If a change applies only to one service (an appendix covering the terms of use for that service), you will be asked to accept the changed Agreement only within the application that provides that service.
- 11.8. If, despite our request and notification, you do not accept the agreement in any of the applications you use, we will not have a basis to continue providing you access to any of them, and we cannot ensure this access. In such a case, we ask that you refrain from using our services.

12. What Other Information About the InPost Account is Worth Knowing?

- 12.1. Your InPost Account may occasionally be unavailable due to technical maintenance. We strive to ensure our services are available 24/7, but sometimes we need to schedule maintenance. In such cases, we will inform you when the maintenance is to occur and how long it will last.
- 12.2. We may terminate our agreement with you and delete your InPost Account if you violate the terms of the Agreement or if we cease to provide services – we will not do this immediately but will inform you with one month's notice.
- 12.3. Consumers using the InPost Account are entitled to specific rights described in the Consumer Rights Act. We have outlined these rights in Appendix C to the Agreement. Below, we provide some additional information regarding these rights:
- a. The Consumer Rights Act defines “digital services” as services allowing the consumer to: “a) create, process, store or access data in digital form; b) share data in digital form transmitted or created by the consumer or other users of the service, c) engage in other forms of interaction through digital data”,
 - b. The services we provide are not linked to the acquisition by the consumer of goods containing digital content or digital services (or linked in such a way that the absence of digital content or services would impede its proper functioning,
 - c. Appendix C applies to the agreement (or terms) under which we are obliged to deliver digital content or services (and other provisions) only when the agreement or terms pertain to digital content or services,
 - d. Appendix C does not apply when the consumer is solely obliged to provide personal data, and such data is processed by us solely:
 - for the purpose of performing the agreement (or terms) or a statutory obligation, or

- to improve security, compatibility, or other interoperability of software offered under an open and free license.

12.4. Consumers in the European Economic Area (EEA) are entitled to withdraw from the service agreement, i.e., this Agreement, under the consumer protection laws applicable in the EEA, under the following conditions:

- a. You have the right to withdraw from the agreement with us within 14 days without providing any reason; you can use the withdrawal form template included in Appendix D of this Agreement, but it is not mandatory for the withdrawal to be effective,
- b. The withdrawal period expires 14 days after the conclusion of the agreement, i.e., the first acceptance of this Agreement,
- c. To exercise the right of withdrawal, you must inform us of your decision to withdraw from the agreement through an unequivocal statement (e.g., a letter sent by post or email). You can contact us by emailing oswiadczenie@inpost.pl, calling 746 600 000 or 722 444 000, starting a chat provided by us, or sending a letter to: InPost sp. z o.o., 4 Pana Tadeusza St., 30-727 Krakow. You may use the withdrawal form template (Appendix D of the Agreement), but it is not obligatory. You can also complete and send the withdrawal form or any clear statement electronically on our website: www.inpost.pl/kontakt. If you use this option, we will promptly send you confirmation of receipt of your withdrawal notice on a durable medium (e.g., by email),
- d. To meet the withdrawal deadline, it is sufficient to send information regarding your exercise of the right to withdraw before the withdrawal period expires.
- e. Withdrawal from the agreement equates to a request to delete the InPost Account (in accordance with data retention rules), which will prevent further use of services.

12.5. If you have questions, requests, concerns or comments, you can always contact us using the form available at: <https://inpost.pl/kontakt>, chat with us, or call our helpline as indicated above.

12.6. The Agreement includes appendices that regulate specific services which are more detailed, and thus require precise descriptions of their provision. These appendices are part of the Agreement and include:

- a. Appendix A: List of services provided by InPost,
- b. Appendix B: Terms used in the Agreement,
- c. Appendix C: Consumer rights regarding digital content or services,

Full Text on Consumer Rights (according to the Consumer Rights Act):	Summary of Key Information:
Article 43j <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The entrepreneur shall provide the consumer with digital content or a digital service promptly after the conclusion of the contract, unless the parties have agreed otherwise. 2. Digital content is considered delivered when the content itself or the means to access or download the digital content has been made available to the consumer or a physical or virtual device chosen by the consumer for this purpose, or when the consumer or such device has gained access to it. 3. A digital service is considered delivered when the consumer or a physical or virtual device chosen by the consumer for this purpose has gained access to it. 4. If the entrepreneur has not delivered the digital content or digital service, the consumer may request its delivery. If the entrepreneur does not deliver the digital content or digital service promptly or within an additional, explicitly agreed timeframe by the parties, the consumer may withdraw from the contract. 	Services that qualify as "digital content" or "digital services" are provided to you promptly unless we have informed you of a different delivery time before you select them. If, despite selecting the digital content/service, you do not have access to it, you may request its delivery from us. You also have the right to withdraw from the contract under the terms described in the summarized provision.

5. The consumer may withdraw from the contract without requesting the delivery of digital content or a digital service if:

1) It is clearly evident from the entrepreneur's statement or circumstances that they will not deliver the digital content or service, or

2) The consumer and entrepreneur agreed, or it is clearly evident from the circumstances of the contract conclusion, that a specified delivery date of the digital content or service was significant for the consumer, and the entrepreneur did not deliver them within that date.

6. The burden of proof for the delivery of digital content or a digital service lies with the entrepreneur.

7. In the event of the consumer withdrawing from the contract, the provisions of Article 43o apply accordingly.

8. The provisions of paragraphs 1-7 do not apply if the contract stipulates the delivery of digital content via a tangible medium.

Article 43k

1. Digital content or digital services are considered compliant with the contract if, in particular, their:

2) Be provided in such quantity and possess such features, including functionality, compatibility, availability, continuity and security, as are typical for digital content or services of the same type, which the consumer can reasonably expect, taking into account the nature of the digital content or service and public assurances made by the entrepreneur, their legal predecessors, or persons acting on their behalf, particularly in advertising or labeling, unless the entrepreneur demonstrates that:

a) They did not know about the public assurance and, reasonably assessing, could not have known about it;

We are not responsible for any non-compliance of the digital content/service with the contract (or terms) if, before your selection (e.g., before creating an InPost Account), we clearly informed you that a feature of the product deviates from those described in paragraph 2 of the summarized provision, and you accepted this in a clear and separate manner. Additionally, if we informed you about the necessity of performing updates and the consequences of skipping them (and did not provide incorrect instructions on how to carry out the update), and you still did not perform the update within a reasonable time, we are also not

3. The entrepreneur informs the consumer about updates, including security updates, necessary to maintain compliance of the digital content or service with the contract and provides them to the consumer for the duration:

2) reasonably expected by the consumer, considering the type of digital content or service and the purpose for which they are used, and the circumstances and nature of the contract if the contract provides for the delivery of digital content or services as a single event or in parts.

4. If the consumer does not install updates provided by the entrepreneur within a reasonable time according to paragraph 3, the entrepreneur is not liable for non-compliance of the digital content or service with the contract resulting solely from the lack of updates, provided that:

2) non-installation or incorrect installation of the update was not due to errors in the installation instructions provided by the entrepreneur.

5. The entrepreneur is not liable for non-compliance of the digital content or service with the contract concerning paragraphs 2 or 3 if the consumer, no later than at the time of contract conclusion, was explicitly informed that a specific feature of the digital content or service deviated from the compliance requirements specified in paragraphs 2 or 3, and explicitly and separately accepted the lack of a specific feature of the digital content or service.

6. If the contract provides for the continuous delivery of digital content or services, the digital content or service must remain compliant with the contract for the duration specified in the contract.

7. Digital content or services are delivered in the latest version available at the time of contract conclusion unless the parties agree otherwise.

8. For the integration of digital content or services, the provisions of Article 43b paragraph 5 apply accordingly.

2. The entrepreneur cannot rely on the expiration of the time period to identify non-compliance of digital content or services with the contract as specified in paragraph 1 if they have fraudulently concealed the non-compliance.

3. The entrepreneur is responsible for non-compliance with the contract of digital content or digital services delivered continuously, which occurred or manifested during the period they were supposed to be delivered according to the contract. It is presumed that any non-compliance that becomes apparent during this period occurred at that time.

4. The entrepreneur is responsible for non-compliance with the contract of digital content or services in the scope regulated by Article 43k paragraph 3, which occurred during the period specified in that provision.

5. The presumptions specified in paragraphs 1 and 3 do not apply if:

The entrepreneur may refuse to bring the digital content or services into compliance with the contract if doing so is impossible or would incur excessive costs for the entrepreneur. 3. When assessing the excessiveness of costs for the entrepreneur, all circumstances of the case are considered, including the significance of the non-compliance and the value of compliant digital content or services. 4. The entrepreneur shall bring the digital content or services into compliance with the contract within a reasonable time after being informed by the consumer of the non-compliance, without undue inconvenience to the consumer, considering their nature and purpose. 3) the non-compliance of the digital content or service with the contract persists despite the entrepreneur's attempts to bring it into compliance;

5) it is clearly evident from the entrepreneur's statement or circumstances that they will not bring the digital content or service into compliance with the contract within a reasonable time or without undue inconvenience to the consumer.

Article 43o

1. After withdrawing from the contract, the entrepreneur cannot use content other than personal data provided or created by the consumer during the use of digital content or services provided by the entrepreneur, except for content that:

1. What Services are available in the App?

- 1.1. You can use the InPost Mobile App to access services such as, in particular:
- 1) Setting up and maintaining an InPost Account,
 - 2) Parcel status and its history in our network,
 - 3) Tools to facilitate Parcel Pick-up, including remote opening, selection of the Easy Access Zone, or the possibility of sharing pick-up data with you or another person,
 - 4) Observed parcel - when you add a third-party parcel (other than your parcel) number to the App, you will get information about it and its current statuses (but you will not be able to collect it),
 - 5) Notifying of any changes to our services,
 - 6) Notification that there is a Parcel Locker nearby, containing your parcel,
 - 7) Purchase of services such as Extension of the parcel storage time to pick up a parcel from the InPost Parcel Locker or to dispatch a parcel (based on the courier Agreement),
 - 8) Making payments for cash-on-delivery service or for the contracts referred to above, using the payment methods available in the App,
 - 9) Providing you with marketing messages (of course only if you agree to this beforehand), managing your consents to specified means of communication,
 - 10) Supporting the actions you take when dispatching, picking up or returning a Parcel,
 - 11) Locations of Parcel Lockers and other pick-up shops in the InPost network,
 - 12) Carbon footprint information,
 - 13) Noting your activity in InPost Mobile by awarding InCoins,
 - 14) Program, the terms and conditions of which are described in the Appendix to these Agreement,
 - 15) InPost Pay, upon providing additional information and personal data and accepting the terms and conditions of this service, which constitutes Appendix 2 to this Agreement.
- 1.2. Correct operation of our services may depend on whether you have and have activated on your device the modules such as: CSM, LTE or CPS, as well as on the access rules to InPost Mobile, which you selected and set up on your device.

- 1.3. Some of our services may require you to have other programs installed on your device that are independent of us, such as a web browser or PDF file readers.
- 1.4. Many of our services are related to courier services that we provide when handling parcels. This applies, for example, to extending the parcel storage time to pick up a parcel from an InPost Parcel Locker. To get to know these conditions, please refer to the courier Agreement.
- 1.5. If your parcel has not yet been delivered to a Parcel Locker, you can choose to place it in the 'Easy Access Zone', i.e. in the bottom row of compartments in the Parcel Locker. You can select this service in the parcel details in the InPost Mobile App. Here are the conditions for this functionality:
 - 1) you can choose this option no later than when the parcel is handed over for delivery (as per the relevant parcel status available in InPost Mobile). Due to the fact that we do not have rigid hours for parcel receiving, handling and delivering, and the hours of our courier services also depend on the time the parcels are dispatched by our customers or by you, handing over a parcel for delivery may take place at different times.
 - 2) We cannot guarantee that we will deliver the parcel to the Easy Access Zone, as these zones may already be filled with other parcels. In this case, we will deliver your parcel to an available compartment.
- 1.6. Certain services may be provided to you only after you take additional actions specified in the Agreement, e.g. when you provide additional personal data necessary for a given service to be supplied.
- 1.7. If we sell services via InPost Mobile, their prices will not be individually tailored to you, in particular based on your behavior or preferences. We do not use such mechanisms.
- 1.8. From the moment InPost Pay is activated, all your payments within the app (as described in the Agreement) will automatically be processed through InPost Pay. You have the option to revert to the previously used payment method within the app at any time by clicking the "Skip" button in the InPost Pay login panel.

2. How can one use InPost Mobile?

- 2.1. If you want to use InPost Mobile, you must have a device that meets our technical requirements (which we describe later in this Agreement), have the app installed (you can download it from stores like Google Play or the App Store), have an InPost Account set up (how to do this is detailed in a separate section above), and have Internet access (without Internet, InPost Mobile may not offer all its services and functionalities).
- 2.2. We respect legal regulations and care for our users. Therefore, you may not add content or data to InPost Mobile that:
- 1) is unlawful,
 - 2) constitutes malware (viruses, trojans, programs that modify the app's operation),
 - 3) intercepts data available in InPost Mobile.
- 2.3. You may not use InPost Mobile in a manner that contravenes social norms, good practices, or disrupts the proper functioning of the app. We also protect our interests, so you cannot use InPost Mobile in a way that infringes upon them.

The exchange of a reward for a defect-free one occurs if you return the defective reward to us.

3. If you choose a reward that is a coupon entitling you to receive goods or services from a partner, we are only responsible for ensuring the partner will honor such a coupon within its validity period and according to the rules set in the reward catalog. The partner is responsible for the goods or services (including their quality).

5. We are not liable for non-compliance of a tangible reward obtained through a lottery (i.e., non-compliance of goods or services with the contract). If you do not comply with our request, we may permanently deprive you of part or all of the InCoins you have collected (depending on the nature of the violation). We will justify each decision and communicate it to you in the app. You can file a complaint about such a decision (according to the principles described in the Agreement).

InPost Pay Terms and Conditions

These terms apply to the service offered within the InPost Mobile app. The InPost Pay service was created, maintained and offered by us, InPost sp. z o.o., based in Krakow at ul. Pana Tadeusza 4, for its user, that is you.

The terms define the rules for providing the InPost Pay service via the app. The conditions of sale of goods or services remotely, concluded between you and the seller, are governed by the seller's sales terms.

Within these terms, we establish our and your rights and obligations related to using the InPost Pay service.

1. What is InPost Pay?

- 1.1. InPost Pay enables a quick purchase path in the seller's online store using personal data saved by you, as well as payment and delivery data within the InPost Account.
- 1.2. The InPost Pay service is available for remote sales agreements where delivery is to be made by InPost.
- 1.3. Within the InPost Pay service, we create a cart in the app, which is a digital service that allows you to:
 - 1) place an order in the online store of the chosen seller via the app,
 - 2) enter discount codes to reduce the payment amount for the order according to separate terms,
 - 3) display the order summary (including possible delivery costs),
 - 4) display the expected delivery date of the order,
 - 5) make payment for the order through the payment gateway.
- 1.4. The cart is single-use. The provision of this service ends when you place an order or opt not to place it. However, the cart remembers information about selected goods and services even after ceasing use of the app for the next 30 (thirty) days. Storing the cart's contents for this period does not guarantee the availability of selected goods or services to enable placing an order later.

- 1.5. We may inform you about the saved cart contents without finalizing the order, using messages in accordance with the app terms.
- 1.6. Using the InPost Pay service, including the cart service, is not associated with paying additional fees.
- 1.7. The payment gateway is part of the InPost Pay service. The payment gateway allows you to use selected payment methods for the order. The list of available payment methods is available in the app.
- 1.8. In every case, the sales agreement for goods or services is concluded directly with the seller. Within InPost, we only provide the digital functionality for creating the cart and completing the purchase process within the app.

2. How Can You Use InPost Pay?

A. General Information

- 2.1. To use InPost Pay, you must have an InPost Account, accept the current app terms, and the InPost Pay terms.
- 2.2. Before using InPost Pay for the first time, we will ask you to fill out an interactive form in the app and provide:
 - 1) your name,
 - 2) your e-mail address,
 - 3) your residential address.
- 2.3. You can opt out of using the InPost Pay service at any time. Remember that deleting the app from your device is not equivalent to deleting your InPost Account or InPost Pay service data.

B. How Does the Purchase Process Work in InPost Pay?

- 2.4. You can start the purchase process with InPost Pay at any chosen seller's online store according to the available options. By clicking the "Add to InPost Cart" button on the selected product or service page on the seller's site, you will issue a command to transfer cart data to the app.
- 2.5. Then:
- 1) If you have an outdated app version, we will ask you to download and install the latest app version;
 - 2) If you do not have an active InPost Account, we will ask you to register an InPost Account. We may also ask you to indicate preferred delivery and payment methods with InPost Pay;
 - 3) If you have the current app version, an active InPost Account, and are logged into the app, we will guide you through pairing the shopping cart with the app and creating the cart using instructions displayed sequentially on the seller's online store and in the app.
- 2.6. After pairing the shopping cart and creating the cart in the app:
- 1) You will confirm the delivery and payment method in the app and review and accept the seller's sales terms;
 - 2) You will place the order by clicking the "Order and Pay" button (in app versions older than 3.50, this button reads "Buy and Pay");
 - 3) You will accept the sales terms of the chosen seller.
- 2.7. Acceptance of the seller's sales terms is necessary for us to successfully complete your purchase process.
- 2.8. When you buy products or services from the seller, the sales agreement is concluded according to the seller's sales terms, accepted by you. Usually, when you place an order, it means the sales agreement is concluded. However, sometimes the seller may specify in their sales terms that your order is only a purchase offer. In such cases, the sales agreement is concluded only when the seller, after verifying the availability of the ordered goods, confirms that they accept your order and can fulfill it. Confirmation of the order by the seller means acceptance of your purchase offer and the conclusion of the sales agreement.

- 2.9. If you purchase goods or services from the seller's online store and pay for them through InPost Pay, you automatically select delivery via InPost. You can choose the delivery from the options available in the app.
- 2.10. The seller sends confirmation of the sales agreement along with the sales terms to the email address you provided during InPost Account registration. The seller issues and sends documents confirming the purchase of goods or services through InPost Pay according to their own sales terms.

C. Hot Products in InPost Pay

- 2.11. Within InPost Pay, we may promote offers and display information encouraging the purchase of selected goods from chosen sellers. We may also use placement mechanisms as defined by the Act on Counteracting Unfair Market Practices, which involves highlighting and specially marking seller offers within the visible "Hot Products" feature in the Shopping section of the Discover tab in the app. These offers are marked as promoted offers in two formats:
- a. Carousel:
 - Offers displayed with the name, store logo, price, and image visible;
 - Users can click on an offer to view its details
 - b. Dropdown List (by clicking "see all") - presents a larger number of offers.
- 2.12. We highlight Hot Product offers based on specific criteria, such as the popularity of a given item, user interest, and high demand for certain goods. We do not receive any benefit related to the promoted item.
- 2.13. By clicking "I want this!" on the carousel or "+" on the dropdown list, you will be redirected to the product page on the seller's online store, where you can finalize the purchase - either directly on the seller's website or as a standard purchase through InPost Pay.

- 2.14. The exact order of display and the promotion period of products within the Hot Products functionality is determined based on:
 - a. your history of previous clicks on Hot Product offers;
 - b. your purchase history;
 - c. your search queries in the app.
- 2.15. You initiate the purchase of a product from a promoted offer within the Hot Products functionality in the selected online store. After starting this process, you may - but are not required to - pair your cart with InPost Pay and continue placing the order in the app.

3. What Are the Technical Requirements for Using InPost Pay?

- 3.1. The InPost Pay service is available on mobile devices with the Android operating system with active Google services or iOS. You can use InPost Pay only after logging into your InPost Account in the app.
- 3.2. The technical conditions for using the app are defined by its terms.
- 3.3. We do not guarantee the proper functioning of the InPost Pay service if you use hardware and software that do not meet the app's technical requirements.

4. How Do You Pay for Your Order in InPost Pay?

- 4.1. When you add goods or services to your cart in the app, you will see their full prices, including all charges such as duties and taxes, including VAT. If there are any payment restrictions for your order, the seller will inform you of them in their online store no later than at the start of placing the order.
- 4.2. Directly before placing the order, that is, before clicking the "Order and Pay" button (in app versions older than 3.50, this button reads "Buy and Pay"), we will show you the total price of the goods or services and any additional charges in the app.

- 4.3. Payments in InPost Pay are processed by external payment service providers. Before paying, familiarize yourself with and accept the payment provider's terms, following the instructions displayed on the screen.
- 4.4. Some payment methods, such as deferred payment, may require you to accept additional terms and undergo additional verification to ensure you meet the conditions set by the provider of that payment method.
- 4.5. If you place subsequent orders through InPost Pay, the app will remember the payment method you previously selected and display it when placing a new order. You can manually change the payment method to another by selecting from the available options on the dropdown list in the order summary in the app.
- 4.6. The seller covers the fees for using the payment methods you choose, except for transaction fees charged by your bank. You bear the costs associated with deferred payment according to the conditions set by the provider of this service. We will inform you of these costs no later than at the start of placing the order in the app. The payment service provider always provides information regarding these charges.
- 4.7. Payment for goods or services you purchase goes directly to the seller. When placing an order in the app, you can indicate that someone else (e.g., your employer) will pay for you by selecting the appropriate option in the order form.
- 4.8. In the app's cart, you can use vouchers and discount coupons granted to you. You can combine them, but the final amount to be paid by you cannot be less than 1 złoty (PLN). The rules for using vouchers and coupons are defined by separate terms adopted by their issuers. Vouchers and coupons from sellers are applied first, followed by those granted by us at InPost.

5. Delivery Terms with InPost Pay

- 5.3. In your InPost Account, you can add and save delivery addresses to use for future orders in InPost Pay.
- 5.4. You can track your delivery status in the app under the "Tracking Shipments" section.

6. Payment Card Terms

A. General Information

- 6.1. The following provisions apply to your activities in InPost Pay if you consent for InPost to save and store a unique code (token) of your payment card used for purchases in online stores of sellers via InPost Pay.
- 6.2. Within InPost Pay, we provide a service for storing your payment card code (payment token). This service is free of charge.
- 6.3. If you consent to save the payment token, it will constitute an agreement between you and InPost for the provision of electronic services. You do not need to provide this consent to use the app and InPost Pay.
- 6.4. The payment token storage service is available only to app users and is provided according to its regulations.

- 6.5. The rules for using the payment gateway and available payment methods are described in other sections of the regulations.

B. What Does the Payment Token Storage Service Include?

- 6.6. InPost allows you to save an encrypted payment card code (payment token) in your InPost Account for easier and secure card payments for goods and services purchased from sellers in InPost Pay.
- 6.7. You can use the payment token storage service only for your payment card, for which a token has been previously generated. You cannot use a payment card code belonging to someone else.
- 6.8. You can save more than one payment token in your account.
- 6.9. As part of the payment token storage service, we use a third-party service for generating network tokens in cooperation with globally recognized card organizations, such as Visa and MasterCard. This means that if your payment card expires, a new card issued by your bank will be visible in your InPost Account via the associated token, allowing you to use it for further payments until you delete the saved token from your InPost Account.
- 6.10. InPost does not store full details of your payment card, such as the number, expiration date, or CVC/CVV code.
- 6.11. Payment tokens are stored securely, protected from unauthorized access.
- 6.12. You can generate and save a payment token after making your first card payment in InPost Pay and completing strong authentication, as well as after consenting to save the generated payment token in the app.
- 6.13. Strong authentication is conducted via your bank's or payment institution's website or mobile app, according to the terms of your agreement with them or the payment card's regulations.
