4. During the promotion, we may publish information about the promotion and its rules via push notifications or in-app banners, as well as on our websites www.inpost.pl and www.inpostpay.pl. 1. The delivery discount granted under the promotion through an automatic discount code can be combined with other vouchers and discount codes offered directly by the online store. The promotion cannot be combined with other codes or discounts granted by us.
2. The number of times you can use the discount code depends on your previous activity as a user:
 - persons who have not previously made any purchases using InPost Pay, i.e. have not placed any orders paid via InPost Pay, may use the promotion three times;
 - users who have completed one order paid via InPost Pay before using the promotion may use the automatic discount code twice;

- users who have two paid orders via InPost Pay at the time the promotion starts may use the promotion once;
 - users who have three or more orders are not eligible to take part in the promotion.
3. The automatic discount code reduces the price of delivery to a Parcel Locker to 8.99 PLN (eight zlotys and ninety-nine groszy). The reduced delivery price is applied when you finalise your order in the online store, after paying with InPost Pay and selecting the delivery method “InPost Parcel Locker”.
